

BOW-WOOS OF HIGH DEGREE. TABLES TURNED ON TYLER. POINTERS ON THE RACES.

The Brooklyn Bench Show Proving a Big Success.

Champion Canines Posing for First Prize Honors.

The big reception that is being given by the most aristocratic canines in the country to Brooklyn society in meeting with greater success than New York's bench show last February.

CHAMPION CASSANDRA.

The number of dogs and the fact that they are the best in the world has verified the promise of the National Greyhound Club that Brooklyn would have the best in the dog line that is going.

MEMNON.

An initial venture, it is meeting with such great success that its protectors feel confident the way is already prepared for other events that will make Brooklyn society independent of Gotham and all the rest of the world.

The award of yesterday's prizes, as printed in The Evening World's Sporting Extra, has not created any outspoken ill-feeling, and the canines that were unsuccessful are now endeavoring to win favor with the people.

DISPUTE OVER A GRAVEYARD.

Serious Discussion in the Congregation Chaari Zedek.

Proposed Removal of Bodies from an Old Cemetery the Cause.

The Congregation Chaari Zedek is said to be divided against itself, and grave fears are entertained that the present discussions may culminate in an open and lasting rupture between the two factions of this ancient body of worshippers. The cause of all the trouble is the contemplated removal of the congregation's cemetery, which fell into desuetude more than thirty years ago.

Two years after the congregation was formed in 1818 two lots were bought by it in Eighteenth street, near Madison avenue, and converted into a burying ground. In 1820 this cemetery was abandoned for a more spacious one in Bayridge, L. I. Since then the red-brick wall of the Eighteenth street cemetery has been crumbling away, and the rust on the bolts and bars of its unused gates has been accumulating unceasingly.

In 1880 a suggestion was made to remove the dead from this cemetery to the new one in Bayridge, but the proposition was summarily dismissed and was thought to have been finally disposed of, when it was started up two weeks ago and recommended from the pulpit in the congregation's Henry street synagogue by the rabbi, Rev. Mr. Zissler.

The plan of removal was favored by the younger portion of the congregation, but the older members opposed it bitterly.

It was urged by the former that a builder who was putting up a house on a lot adjacent to the old cemetery wanted to make excavations of the old brick wall, a considerable portion of which had fallen over upon the graves.

The faction claiming a right to have such a sanction from Chief Rabbi Joseph for the removal of the dead, and were said to be negotiating for the sale of the cemetery when the other faction, which had been organized, appointed a committee to watch at Bayridge to demand of what authority he had issued such a permit.

"I have been given permission," said Rabbi Joseph, "and it is claimed that I did brand the statement as a falsehood. All these boys were buried in these graves which were disturbed by the builder, and lawfully removed; but I took great pains to impress upon those who questioned me about it, that the disturbance of graves for profit would be a desecration, and an unfriendly act."

The chief rabbi, who wrote out his deposition, however, requested that the congregation contribute copies of it among the members of the congregation. Chaari Zedek. Despite this, there seems to be no abatement of the contest between the two factions.

MYSTERY OF A COAT.

Identified by Mrs. Doyle as the One Worn by Her Husband.

The mystery of a coat was partially unraveled today at Police Headquarters.

On the morning of Nov. 18, a black coat was found at Pier 50 East River, in the pocket of which was a ticket to Grass Point, Rockaway County, N. Y., on the steamboat Cyrusina.

The coat was taken to the Property Clerk's office at Police Headquarters, and this morning Mrs. Maggie Doyle called at Headquarters and made inquiries for her husband, Frank Doyle, who was a brickmason in the yards of Paterson.

She said he had come to New York last Friday to buy groceries for the family, as he was in the habit of doing every month. He had a small sum, a total of $150, and gave him a ticket to Grass Point. When he arrived, he could return that way in case he spent all his money.

The coat was found in his room, and one morning, as it was one worn by his husband when he left home. He had bought $10 worth of groceries and other things at Moore's store, on the corner of Franklin and Tremont avenues. The coat was a dark blue, with a high collar, and was slightly worn.

A slight fire occurred in Louis Roth's hardware shop, at 183½ Park avenue, this morning, shortly before noon. Today, a fire occurred in the same place, and the damage was $100.

It is thought by the police that he is drowned. The body has not been recovered.

You Can Select Bargains in Furniture at 183½ Park and 6th ave., better in the mornings than in the rush afternoons."

His Pretty Wife Begins a Suit for Divorce from Him.

She Alleges Cruelty, Non-Support and Unfaithfulness.

The big reception that is being given by the most aristocratic canines in the country to Brooklyn society in meeting with greater success than New York's bench show last February.

Mrs. Tyler has retained Lawyer John D. Townsend as counsel, and the summons and complaint were served upon Tyler as he was setting out from the Stewart House last evening for Lancaster, Pa., where he was to begin a theatrical engagement.

The complaint recites that Tyler represented to her that he had a lucrative theatrical business, but that after marriage she discovered that this was untrue; that he was a gambler of the lowest instincts, and that she discovered his unfaithfulness shortly after their marriage. She alleges that he frequently failed to provide her with necessities, whether in food or clothing, to pawn her jewelry to obtain enough to eat, and finally:

That in about October of May last, at the time when she was pregnant, he threatened the defendant without any cause given a pistol upon the plaintiff and threatened to shoot her if she did not give him $100.

That about the 15th of November, in consequence of the defendant's neglect to provide and care for the plaintiff, she refused to live any longer with him, and he threatened to shoot her if she did not leave him. She also claims to have tried to leave him, but he threatened and caused her to believe that she had obtained a pistol and intended to shoot him to death.

That she has two children, a boy and a girl, the defendant has not paid any support to them.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been unable to get her into school because of the want of money.

That she has a son, a boy, who is about three years old, and that she has been unable to get him into school because of the want of money.

That she has a daughter, a girl, who is about two years old, and that she has been